RE

1	All classes follow the 3 year rolling RE planning grid.
2	All pupils are provided with opportunities to learn about and learn from Christianity, the Abrahamic and Dharmic faiths and the opportunity to explore World views.
3	During their time at Ilam School there are rich opportunities for pupils to enjoy a wide range of visits to support and enhance their learning in RE E.g. Ilam church and Derby Faith trail.
4	RE is viewed as an academic core subject. Philosophy Theology and Human Sciences are used as the lenses to enable best practice.
5	Pupils understand that RE has a significant place in the ever changing world and are aware that different beliefs and practices can positively impact on actions and advocacy.
